Property Details

A perfectly positioned, split level, loft-style one-bedroom apartment within a Victorian school conversion. College Green Court is a highly sought-after, gated development, equidistant to transport links in Brixton. This characterful development has been recently renovated externally and has a lovely period façade.

This stylish flat has stunning floor to ceiling windows, typical of school conversions, which flood the entire space with natural light throughout. The kitchen is contemporary, with all needs met in terms of storage and worktop space, whilst the reception room provides the perfect space in which to relax, dine and entertain. A fully-equipped and beautifully finished bathroom completes the rooms on the ground floor. The upper floor of this property comprises of a double bedroom which is generous in size with considerable built-in storage. This property displays an endearing level of character and charm that is truly hard to find elsewhere.

The property further benefits from an unrivalled location: just a stone's throw from Brixton tube station (Victoria Line), as well as the restaurants, bars and cafes that make up the culinary Mecca of vibrant Atlantic Road and Coldharbour Lane. With both Brixton Village and Pop Brixton also on the doorstep, tenants will be able to sample a different cuisine every night of the week. The beautiful greenery of Brockwell Park and its 1930s Lido are also within walking distance.
