Property Details

An exquisitely refurbished four double bedroom Victorian house with a South-facing garden and amenities in every direction. Tastefully finished, ready for a stress-free move. An inviting double reception has high ceilings, bay window and original fireplace plus modern lighting and plush carpets. The contemporary kitchen integrates appliances and storage within gloss cabinetry. A sociable island enhances this fantastic entertaining space, bathed in light from skylights. Bi-fold doors allow a seamless transition to the private garden, perfect for hosting al-fresco. This sun trap is ideal for relishing the summer months, with additional light and privacy due to the low-rise buildings beyond. Completing the ground floor is a W.C., plus access to a cellar. The principal bedroom suite is a deluxe room with multiple sash windows, fitted wardrobes and a luxurious en-suite. Three further double bedrooms are neutrally presented, serviced by two further bathrooms. Sunlight pours into a versatile sun room, ideal for an office, studio or secondary lounge. A loft has plentiful storage, with precedent set should the purchaser wish to seek permission to extend in the future.
