Property Details

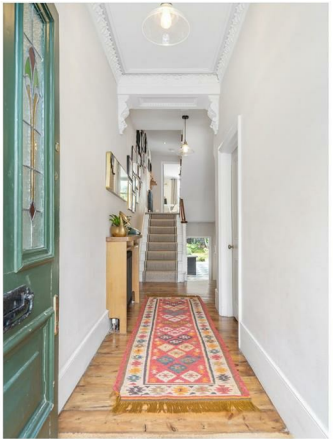

Keating Estates are proud to present to market a spacious six-bedroom, three bathroom Victorian townhouse with over 2300 square feet of characterful living space. Deerbrook Road is an attractive residential street in Herne Hill perfectly nestled within a stone's throw of Brockwell Park. To the front of the home, the dual-aspect reception room is packed full of character, including a sash bay window fitted with plantation shutters, original wooden flooring, two feature fireplaces and high ceilings finished with beautiful corning. The spacious kitchen flows seamlessly through to the bright and airy eat-in conservatory offering a more casual dining experience. Double doors lead out to an idyllic private garden. Arranged over the first floor are three well-proportioned double bedrooms. The second floor comprises the remaining three bedrooms, and two beautifully designed bathrooms, the current owners are using one of these bedrooms as an office space to compliment hybrid working.
