Property Details

A spacious apartment with two double bedrooms, two bathrooms and a winter garden terrace within a luxury development. Floor to ceiling windows run the width of the open-plan reception, with privacy due to trees, and an elevated, set-back position. The kitchen has sleek cabinetry integrating appliances and a sociable wrap-around layout with worktop lighting to create a pleasant evening ambience suited to hosting around the table. The comfortable lounge area leads to a private winter garden terrace, expanding the already spacious living space with views over the park opposite. The terrace can be opened up in the warmer months, a versatile space to be relished all year round. Both bedrooms are sizeable with large windows, glazed to modern standards for additional quiet. The principal has built-in wardrobes and an en-suite. The main bathroom is also spacious and luxurious with a bathtub plus overhead shower. There is storage in two large cupboards in the entrance, one is currently a home office. The flat has high energy efficiency to reduce bills, and the development has video entry, bike storage and well-maintained shared gardens.
