

Vibart Gardens, Brixton, SW2

3 bedroom house for sale

£575,000

Freehold

Property Details

A three bedroom, two bathroom house packed full of potential in a quiet cul-de-sac. This versatile home has both a front and rear garden with precedent set should the purchaser wish to seek the necessary permissions to extend. Natural light is a re-occurring theme and the sizeable reception is no exception with large windows bathing the room in sunlight. The separate eat-in kitchen has rear garden views through another expansive window. Sleek cabinetry provides plentiful storage and generous wooden worktops for a practical space to cook and dine. The bathroom on this floor is ideal for guests with a shower for busy morning routines, adding to the versatile nature of the home. There is the potential to remove some of the dividing walls if opening up the ground floor is desired. A large rear garden is laid to paving for ease of maintenance with the potential to dress with planters or fully landscape. The front garden is full of greenery for a welcoming entrance with an outdoor store next to the front door. Upstairs are three double bedrooms, two of which are particularly generous. The main bathroom is tastefully neutral with a bathtub, double sinks and storage.
