Property Details

This is a very spacious, well executed two bed Victorian garden flat. Both bedrooms are large, light doubles, one overlooking the side return of the rear garden and the other looking forward towards the street through a large bay window. The bathroom is large, modern and clean and the reception room is large and bright with another bay window and an opening onto the sleek kitchen and dining area. The kitchen opens onto a charming courtyard garden through double French doors. As it is only a short walk to Clapham North station means that access into the city from the flat is quick and easy.
