1 bedroom flat - conversion for sale

£375,000

Leasehold

Property Details

A lofty and bright one bedroom Victorian conversion on a sought-after street almost equidistant to Clapham and Brixton. A complete blank canvas, the apartment is ready to move into with the potential to add your own decorative touches, enhancing the lovely features and bringing the home to life. Set to the upper floors it benefits from a bright and private ambience throughout. A gorgeous open plan reception is spacious with plenty of character and room for a dining area and living area without feeling confined. The kitchen neatly wraps around, maximising storage and worktop space. Skylights allow plenty of natural light to flood in whilst the lofty ceilings add to the charm. Down a small flight of stairs is a spacious double bedroom, peacefully set to the rear of the home with carpeted floors and leafy views. Adjacent, the neutral bathroom has a shower over the bath, ideal for a soak in the bubbles with stary skylight views. In short, an enticing home packed full of potential on a sought-after street, with amenities in every direction. A share of the freehold will be granted upon the sale of the final flat in the building.
