Property Details

A unique, architecturally designed two bedroom, two bathroom period apartment with a mezzanine study, on a sleepy Victorian street. Cleverly designed with immaculate attention to detail this fantastic home is bound to appeal, with multiple selling points and built-in storage throughout. Sure to impress, the reception spans the width of the building featuring a bay window and double height ceilings. Wood and steel cabinetry strike an appealing balance to create a stylish yet unique kitchen with plentiful storage and worktop space. Completing this floor is the main bathroom, with a large window and double-ended bathtub. An impressive stairwell opens out to a versatile spot on a mezzanine overlooking the reception, currently a study with bifolding doors to open out the space. Both bedrooms are sizeable doubles with fitted storage, the principal has a hidden ensuite through the wardrobe, whilst the second bedroom has skylights, exposed brickwork and bi-folding doors to an internal Juliet balcony. Each bedroom is immaculately presented, and peacefully separated from each other and also the already sleepy street.
