

Property Details

A stunning two bedroom flat situated just a stones throw away from Brockwell park. This stunning flat comprises two good sized double bedrooms, an open plan kitchen and reception with heaps of natural light - both the bedrooms and kitchen/reception area have a warm yet contemporary feel through the wooden furnishing and decor. The property is finished off with a modern family sized bathroom. The future tenants for this property have the added benefit of being in a freshly decorated home as it's currently going under extensive redecoration. Living here you'll be just around a six minute walk from the beloved Brockwell park and around a fourteen minute walk to Herne Hill station - you're also in walking distance of everything that vibrant Brixton has to offer.
