2 bedroom house for sale

£700,000

Freehold

Property Details

On entering the house you are met by a large reception, ideal for relaxing and unwinding, entertaining guests and dining. The reception feeds through to a separate kitchen, modern and well designed with sleek white cupboards and a handy WC and utility. This well-appointed kitchen space provides direct access to the private, sunny garden that is an ideal spot to enjoy the warmer months. On the first floor, two well-proportioned and fairly similar sized double bedrooms, each with their own modern en-suite bathrooms. The square footage is savoured within this property, a sympathetic layout and thoughtful storage options are teamed with minimising hallway space, in order to maximise on usable living space and therefore providing function and comfortability throughout the house. The bedrooms demonstrate a level of privacy between each other, meaning that the property will appeal to a wide range of buyers.
