Property Details

A gorgeous one bedroom flat set within a beautiful detached Victorian period property. The flat has been finished to a high standard and features a stunning South facing sun trap terrace (picture exquisite sundowners here), high ceilings in the bedroom and a spacious reception room with engineered hard wood parquet floors. The recently fitted kitchen leads directly off the lounge giving you a social aspect to the flat with the semi open plan feel. The luxurious modern finish, spacious feel and location make this the perfect home for anyone looking for a quiet, yet convenient setting for local transport into central London. Local amenities include Tulse Hill station, Brockwell Park and Herne Hill which are all nearby. Slightly further afield you have the buzz of Brixton and Clapham Common.
