Property Details

An exquisite one bedroom apartment within a secure gated Grade II-listed Victorian school conversion. The flat is quietly elevated on the fourth floor, ensuring privacy and light, enhanced by a Southerly aspect, creating a bright and warm setting with lower cost energy bills. Beta Place is a highly sought-after residential community peacefully tucked away within extensive grounds, close to both Clapham and Brixton. With large arched windows and wooden floors, the reception has significant space to lounge and dine. The separate kitchen is contemporary with flush cabinetry offering ample storage and characterful parquet flooring. Screened behind a curved feature wall to maximise light is the double bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe leading into a dressing space. The epitome of luxury, the wet room is accessed from both bedroom and reception and is equipped with high quality, stylish fittings, shelving and mood lighting. Storage is on offer within a large loft space and in the entrance hall. Of further benefit is an allocated parking space within the gates of this pet-friendly development, plus extensive communal gardens, secure bike racks, a neighbourly atmosphere and on-site gym and sauna.
